Hock Heng Industries Public Issue Oversubscribed

KUALA LUMPUR, March 18 (Bernama) -- The Hock Heng Stone Industries Bhd public issue under which six million shares were made available for application by the Malaysian public have been oversubscribed.

In a statement here Thursday, Malaysian Issuing House Sdn Bhd (MIH) said a total of 4,274 applications for 72.875 million shares were received from Malaysian public for a total of six million shares available for public subscription, which represents an oversubscription rate of 11.15 times.

It also said that the 13.6 million shares reserved for private placement to selected investors have been placed out.

Under the six million shares offered to the public, at least 50 per cent was set aside for Bumiputera investors; two million shares made available for application by eligible directors, employees and other persons who have contributed to the success of the Hock Heng group.

From the 13.6 million shares made available for application by way of placement to selected investors, eight million shares were made available for application by Bumiputera investors approved by the International Trade and Industry Ministry.

Hock Heng IPO oversubscribed by 11.2 times

KUALA LUMPUR: Hock Heng Stone Industries Bhd, which is poised to be listed on March 26 has had the public tranche of its initial public offering (IPO) oversubscribed by 11.2 times.

In a statement yesterday, Hock Heng said it received a total of 4,274 applications for 72.875 million shares with a total value of RM36.8 million for the public tranche of six million shares. Public Investment Bank Bhd is the adviser, managing underwriter, underwriter and sole placement agent for the IPO.

"This, we believe, is a clear indication of the public's confidence in our leading position in the dimension stones industry and our ability to bring the group to the higher planes of growth," said its chairman and managing director Low Kim Hock.

He said to date, the group had several notable projects in its portfolio comprising high-end residential and commercial properties.

Catering to retail and commercial customers, the Hock Heng group started operations in 1988 in the business of manufacturing a wide range of dimension stones, including granite, marble, sandstone and slate. The stones are cut to specific dimensions for use in the building, construction and monumental industries.

It has a manufacturing facility in Melaka as sales offices in Selangor and sales-cum-secondary processing plants in Pahang and Johor.

Its key projects included the Kuala Lumpur City Centre, the Prime Minister's office, Suria Stonor condominium, and the Pullman Putrajaya Lakeside.

Hock Heng's IPO entails the public issue of 15.34 million new ordinary shares and 14.26 million offer-for-sale shares at an IPO price of 55 sen per share. The IPO will raise RM8.438 million for Hock Heng and RM7.842 million for the vendors.

Of the RM8.438 million in proceeds, RM2.12 million will be used for quarry operations, RM790,000 for the construction of a secondary processing plant, RM4 million for working capital, and RM1.53 million to defray listing expenses.

The public issue of 15.34 million new ordinary shares comprises six million shares for application by the public, two million for eligible directors, employees and business associates, 3.46 million for bumiputera investors approved by the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (Miti) and 3.88 million for private placement to identified investors.

Of the 14.26 million offer-for-sale shares, 4.54 million will be allocated to bumiputera investors approved by Miti, and 9.72 million for private placement to identified investors.
